Heritage Lottery Fund statement – Wilton’s Music Hall, London

25/05/2011

Carole Souter, Chief Executive of HLF, said: “Wilton’s Music Hall is a unique and precious part of our theatrical heritage. The Trust’s plans were well articulated and ranked highly for our support.

"However, this was a competitive round of funding – three times over-subscribed - and, in spite of huge enthusiasm for the project, we simply did not have enough money to fund it in this round as other projects were even stronger.

"We will be meeting with Trust representatives shortly in order to provide feedback and discuss the best way forward."

Background

To date, HLF has made 215 awards in the London Borough of Tower Hamlets totalling £58.6m.

Notes to editors

Using money raised through the National Lottery, the Heritage Lottery Fund (HLF) sustains and transforms a wide range of heritage for present and future generations to take part in, learn from and enjoy. From museums, parks and historic places to archaeology, natural environment and cultural traditions, we invest in every part of our diverse heritage. HLF has supported over 30,000 projects, allocating £4.5billion across the UK.
