Non-executive independent members

Our non-executive independent members provide an external perspective and independent support and guidance on committee matters.

They were appointed during open advertisement to join the Audit and Risk Committee.