

Insight

Browse our latest research into the UK heritage sector.

Gaining insights about the work we do helps us to drive positive change for people and communities.

We do this through:

- researching the value and role of heritage today
- evaluating the outcomes and impacts of our past investment

Research and evaluation help us implement and improve our strategy and allows us to explore ideas for future funding.

Below, you will find:

- our latest research into the UK heritage sector
- our evaluation reports
- the impact our investments make across the UK
