Changing lives

We love to celebrate the difference our funding makes to people and communities.

Find below our favourite heart-warming stories about real people and real lives, changed for the better by funds from National Lottery players.