Introduction

The Executive has allocated £20million of COVID-19 support funding in the 2021/2022 financial year to assist the culture, languages, arts, heritage and other sectors. These sectors have been badly impacted by the pandemic as they rely heavily on peoples' ability to come together.

The Minister for Communities has pledged to continue supporting the culture, languages, arts and heritage sectors to mitigate the impacts of the pandemic to prevent loss of sectoral skills among self-employed/freelance individuals.

As the impact of COVID-19 dissipates, this programme is aimed at promoting the recovery and renewal of the heritage sector. It provides a single one-off payment which recognises that self-employed/freelance individuals will incur costs of re-establishing their creative practice. Without support, vital skills and expertise may be permanently lost from the sector.

We will invite eligible applications from individuals negatively affected by the pandemic in the financial year 1 April 2021 to 31 March 2022. Individuals must demonstrate that their income has been negatively impacted during this period, in full or in part due to COVID-19.

Funding comes from the Department for Communities and is being delivered by the Heritage Fund.

Key dates

- applications are open from 17 December 2021 to noon on 28 January 2022
- decisions will be announced by 31 March 2022
- we will fund activity from 1 April 2021 to 31 March 2022
- completion reports and evidence of spending must be submitted by 30 June 2022

Please note

We have developed this funding programme quickly in order to respond to the immediate needs of the heritage sector.

We are not offering one to one pre-application advice, so please make sure you read the guidance carefully and check that you are eligible to apply.

Overview

The overriding objective of this Department for Communities programme is to retain a vital workforce within the heritage sector which is at risk of being lost as a result of COVID-19. The programme also aims to support this workforce in adapting to a changing heritage sector.

Many freelance workers, craftworkers and those with specialist heritage skills have lost some of their earned income this year. If not given support this sector may take longer to return to a functioning heritage economy.

Priority for funding will be given to those who have been unable to access other forms of financial support from Government or other sources.

Who can apply

We are accepting applications from self-employed and freelance individuals working in the heritage sector. Individuals must have a principal private residence in Northern Ireland. Applicants need to be over 18.

These individuals could include specialist heritage builders, conservators and craftspeople registered with an appropriate professional body. It could also include tour guides who provide heritage tours or tours at heritage sites.

This is an indicative list and is not exhaustive. The fund is aimed at workers in the heritage economy who bring skills or expertise to the heritage ecosystem.

Please note applicants who have received funding from the Arts Council's Creative Individuals Recovery Programme are not eligible for this fund.

Applicants who received funding during the last round of emergency grants from the Department of Communities, but have not yet submitted a completion report, are still eligible to apply for this fund. However, these applicants will not be given priority for support until they have met all their contractual requirements under any previous emergency grant.
