

Have your say on how we support the UK's heritage

Image: Golden Tree Productions - Kerdroya: The Cornish Landscape Labyrinth. Photo: Hana Backland. We're working towards an ambitious new vision for the UK's heritage and for what our investment will achieve. We want you to be part of shaping it.

Page last updated: 5 September 2022

Whether you work or volunteer in heritage, or simply have views about the future of heritage in the places you live, work and visit, we want to hear from you.

Help us shape how we'll work together in the years ahead and the difference we can make for the UK's rich and diverse heritage.

Eilish McGuinness, Chief Executive of The National Lottery Heritage Fund

Eilish McGuinness, Chief Executive of The National Lottery Heritage Fund, says: "As the UK's largest funder of heritage, it's important that we understand and collaborate with you – those who know the sector and the people it serves – on how we continue to invest in heritage and ensure it is maintained and valued now and in the future.

"Help us shape how we'll work together in the years ahead and the difference we can make for the UK's rich and diverse heritage."

Get inspired

Remote video URL

We've embedded content from YouTube here. As YouTube may collect personal data and track your viewing behaviour, we'll only load the video after you consent to their use of cookies and similar technologies as described in their privacy policy. We will also set a cookie to remember your preference.

Watch on YouTube

Take part

Update: our strategy surveys are now closed. Thank you to everyone who shared their opinions on the future of UK heritage with us.

Sign up to our newsletter and follow us on social media to keep up to date on the development of our new strategy.

Read more