

Take part in Crossed Finger Selfie Day 2022

07/11/2022

Crossed fingers at the Scottish Parliament

On Monday 14 November, join us on social media and say a big #ThanksToYou to National Lottery players for funding amazing heritage projects across the UK.

Together, thousands of people will post crossed finger selfies across Twitter, Facebook and Instagram on Monday 14 November.

We're looking forward to shining a spotlight on some of the magnificent heritage projects funded by The National Lottery.

14 November marks the first day that National Lottery tickets went on sale, 28 years ago in 1994.

How can I get involved?

Share your crossed finger selfie pictures on social media with a message to National Lottery players, letting them know about what they helped make happen.

Tag us in at @HeritageFundUK and use the hashtag #ThanksToYou.

In previous years we have marked this on 19 November, but this year the date has been moved to 14 November so it doesn't fall on a weekend.
