Special offers and free entry to heritage attractions

Visitors at Windermere Jetty Museum, which is offering free entry as part of the week. Credit: Tom Arran.

National Lottery Open Week is running from Saturday 7 to Sunday 15 March 2026, with hundreds of heritage venues getting involved.

Delve into the past at historical houses, castles and museums or embrace nature in all its glory at lots of wonderful wildlife hotspots this March.

To say thank you for the £32million raised for good causes by players every week, National Lottery-funded venues are offering free entry, discounts and special deals.

With more than 600 offers available, all you need to start exploring is a National Lottery ticket or scratchcard!

Where will you visit?

Free entry

Hundreds of National Trust sites and venues are throwing their doors open for free including Sutton Hoo in Suffolk, Powis Castle and Garden in Wales, Lindisfarne Castle in Northumberland and Florence Court in Northern Ireland.

National Trust for Scotland is offering free access to places like The Hill House, Robert Burns Birthplace Museum and Glencoe National Nature Reserve.

Take a trip to outstanding English Heritage sites for free including Brodsworth Hall and Gardens, Dover Castle and Pendennis Castle.

Head outside and explore RSPB nature reserves full of life, such as Strumpshaw Fen, Saltholme and Conwy.

You can also get free entry to:

- Yorkshire Sculpture Park
- Robert Burns Birthplace Museum
- The Brunel Museum
- The Eden Project
- Delapré Abbey
-

Free

Ffestiniog & Welsh Highland Railways are providing behind the scenes tours.

Walk in the footsteps of a Roman soldier at Richborough Fort and Amphitheatre, explore Maritime Mile along Belfast's Historic Waterfront or hop on a tour at Ffestiniog & Welsh Highland Railways.

2-for-1 deals and 50% off

Step into history at the iconic Tower of London, discover stories at Hillsborough Castle or trace the tale of the beautiful game at The Scottish Football Museum – all with 50% off.

Sites i or-1 deals.

National Lottery players receive 2 for 1 access to 4D theatres at the RAF Museum. Credit: RAF Museum.

Special offers

Visit Harewood House with discounted tickets, get free entry for kids at the Roman Baths, or experience flying with the Red Arrows in the RAF Museums' amazing 4D theatre.

Find an offer near you

Explore all the offers available during Open Week on The National Lottery website.

Sign up to our newsletter to hear about future opportunities like this.

Players from the Scottish Ensemble, one the partners who will use the historic McLellan Galleries on Sauchiehall Street in Glasgow following restoration. Photo: James Chapelard.

We've invested £10million to revitalise historic places and bring communities closer to their Ulster Folk Museum is creating new facilities and ways for people to get involved. Credit: Johnny Frazer.

luseum

TR Locomotive No.1 'Talyllyn'. Credit: Luke Ryan.

Our £3.7million investment is helping Talyllyn Railway preserve treasured transport heritage