

Role

Trustee and Chair of the Committee for Wales

Ian has been a public servant for over 35 years, most recently as Chief Executive of Wrexham CBC (2018–24).

He has a long track record of playing a leading role in major successful heritage projects both in England and Wales including: Wigan Pier, Greenfield Valley, Bailey Hill, North East Wales Archive, Stori Brymbo, Football Museum of Wales and Pontcysyllte World Heritage Site. Ian is also an experienced board member currently being Vice Chair of Sport Wales and Chair of the Electoral Management Board Wales.

He also sits on the DCMS UK Town of Culture Advisory Panel. With a background in a wide range of cultural services, Ian is an advocate for the sector and aims to use his skills and experience to give back to public services and the cultural sector.