Showcase your success in the 2013 SURF Awards

23/07/2013

The SURF Awards are widely recognised as the most prestigious in the field of Scottish community regeneration.

This year, there are five categories of entry, including a special award to highlight success in creative regeneration.

The benefits of making an application include:

- The application process is free, brief and straightforward
- SURF Awards recognition demonstrates value to key partners and funders
- Making an application can increase team confidence and focus
- The winning initiatives will be showcased throughout 2014 and offered free consultancy support to build on their success
- All 15 shortlisted entries will be highlighted in a widely distributed publication
- Housing & Welfare Minister Margaret Burgess MSP will present the SURF Awards at a celebratory presentation dinner event on 4 December 2013 in Glasgow.

So if you know of a deserving Scottish regeneration project, please consider submitting a nomination before this year's closing date of Monday, 19 August.

The application materials are available on the SURF website
