

Lottery money to address urgent repairs to South West historic places of worship

16/08/2013

Today, the Heritage Lottery Fund (HLF) announced £751,800 of Lottery funding to help secure the future of eight of the South West's most historic places of worship.

This vital money is helping congregations address a back log of urgent repairs to listed churches and chapels at risk across the South West including Portbury Church in Somerset; St John's Church in Yeovil; and the Church of St Nicholas on the Isles of Scilly.

Portbury Church in Somerset is amongst the first of 35 churches across the UK to be awarded a grant through HLF's new Grants for Places of Worship programme.

Launched in March, it supersedes the Repair Grants for Places of Worship scheme. In addition to providing money for urgent repairs, the programme is now also funding new works that support and encourage greater community use and engagement, helping to increase the number of people who take an active interest in these historic buildings and who will care for them in the future. Today's grants will support the provision of new toilets and kitchens; create historical exhibitions, leaflets and guide books; commission skills training for volunteer tour guides; and develop digital marketing tools including websites and web-based tools such as apps.

Nerys Watts, Head of HLF South West, said: "There is a place of worship in almost every ward, village and town across the South West of England, providing a very powerful visual connection with our past. Not only will our awards secure the immediate future of these particular buildings, it will also empower congregations to adapt them, where necessary, so they can be enjoyed more widely throughout the community and in turn enable them be more sustainable for the future."

Dr Simon Thurley, Chief Executive of English Heritage, which provides expert advice for the programme, said: "I applaud the HLFs continuing commitment to our historic places of worship. These funds will help all 96 beneficiaries to remain viable buildings reflecting our past and contributing to our future. There is so much more to this project than just making the physical structures safe and sound. By providing money for visitor facilities, exhibitions, books and tour guides, the grants are going to help the public enjoy and appreciate these buildings. This is a vital part of keeping our heritage alive."

Grants for Places of Worship announced today include:
