

Young child making traditional bread in historic oven B-Arts

We are running free event on Wednesday 14 October (10.00-13.30) at Newcastle-under-Lyme Library. Discover what funding and support are available to turn ideas into action!

Do you want to preserve and share the heritage of Newcastle-under-Lyme?

Do you want to try something new and link up with experts to explore the past?

Do you need funding to make it happen?

We invite you to:

- Find out about HLF grants from £3,000 upwards
- Get top tips on what makes a good application
- Hear from a successful project
- Learn what support is available from organisations
- Arrange a one-to-one advice session to talk to HLF staff about your ideas

This free event is open to all groups from the borough of Newcastle-Under-Lyme who are interested in funding to explore and share the past. To book a space use our Eventbrite booking form or for more details tel: 0121 616 6883 or email: elise.turner@hlf.org.uk. This event is delivered by the Heritage Lottery Fund, Newcastle-Under-Lyme Borough

Council and VAST.

Bread making session with the mobile oven Image: Paul Pickard

Bread In Common