There is a word limit for your application of 9,000 words in total. Word counters throughout the application form will let you know how many words you have written so far and you will be able to save the document as you work on it, no matter how many words you have written. However, please bear in mind that you will not be able to submit your application if you go over 9,000 words.

Please note that the way in which the HLF portal counts words slightly differs from other word processing software, e.g. Microsoft Word. For example, if you use dashes in your text, this may be counted as an additional word by the HLF portal counters. If you decide to copy and paste text directly into your online application, please review your application before submission and make changes where necessary to ensure you do not exceed the stated word count limits.

We will confirm we have received your application when we have your online form and all supporting material. If you are sending any material in hard copy, this must arrive within five working days, and by the relevant programme deadline, if applicable. We will not assess your application if you miss the published programme deadline, have not provided the correct supporting documents (please do not send more than we ask for) or have not answered all the questions.
